Conference September 20 - 24

The Mexican Society for Computer Sciences (SMCC) invites Computer Scientists to submit papers to its Mexican International Conference in Computer Science 2004, ENC-04, to be held in the city of Colima, Colima, México, from September 20th to the 24th of 2004. The proceedings of the Conference will be published by IEEE Computer Society Press.

ENC'04 covers a broad spectrum of topics including, but not limited to:

- Theoretical Computer Science
- Software Engineering
- Evolutionary Computing
- Image Processing and Computer Vision
- Computer Graphics
- Computer Architecture
- Operating Systems and Compilers
- Educational Computing
- Algorithms
- Computer Networks
- Computational Linguistics
- Distributed Systems
- Web Computing
- Information Retrieval
- Artificial Intelligence
- Human-Computer Interaction
- Robotics

Submission Guidelines

Electronic submissions of abstracts are due on March 8, 2004. Full papers should be submitted by March, 15. No Papers will be accepted if the corresponding abstract was not submitted on time. Full papers should have a length of up to 8 pages and be submitted for evaluation as a PDF or PostScript file in the formatting conventions established by IEEE (<http://www.computer.org/cspress/instruct.htm>).

We will use a double-blind reviewing process. Please, do not include the author's name and affiliation or any indication, which may disclose the paper authorship, in the submitted paper itself.

Further instructions for electronic submission will be published in the conference site: <http://www.smcc.org/enc04>

Conference Venue

Known as 'City of the Palms,' the sub-tropical city of Colima is situated in the center of a wide inclined valley below the peaks of two volcanoes. Founded in 1525, the city's restored colonial center's plazas and parks radiate Old World style charm.
